A MESSAGE FROM THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY

For twenty-three years, it has been a special privilege for the District Attorney's Office to sponsor our community's drug free calendar contest. Participating students continue to impress the poster judges with their creations and grasp of the prevention message. Clearly, the dedication and hard work of the teachers and the community will have an impact on those who see the art work and read the message. Over the years, many thousands of calendars have made their way into homes, schools, and businesses, affording the community-at-large an excellent opportunity to view the drug message and enjoy the artistic ability of the contestants.

This contest is sponsored by my office in conjunction with local law enforcement agencies and Team Fort Collins. The contest and calendar is partially funded from money ordered seized and forfeited by the court from drug offenders who have been convicted of drug, or drug related crimes. These seized funds are now being used to benefit this community in a way that fights against the illegal use and distribution of drugs.

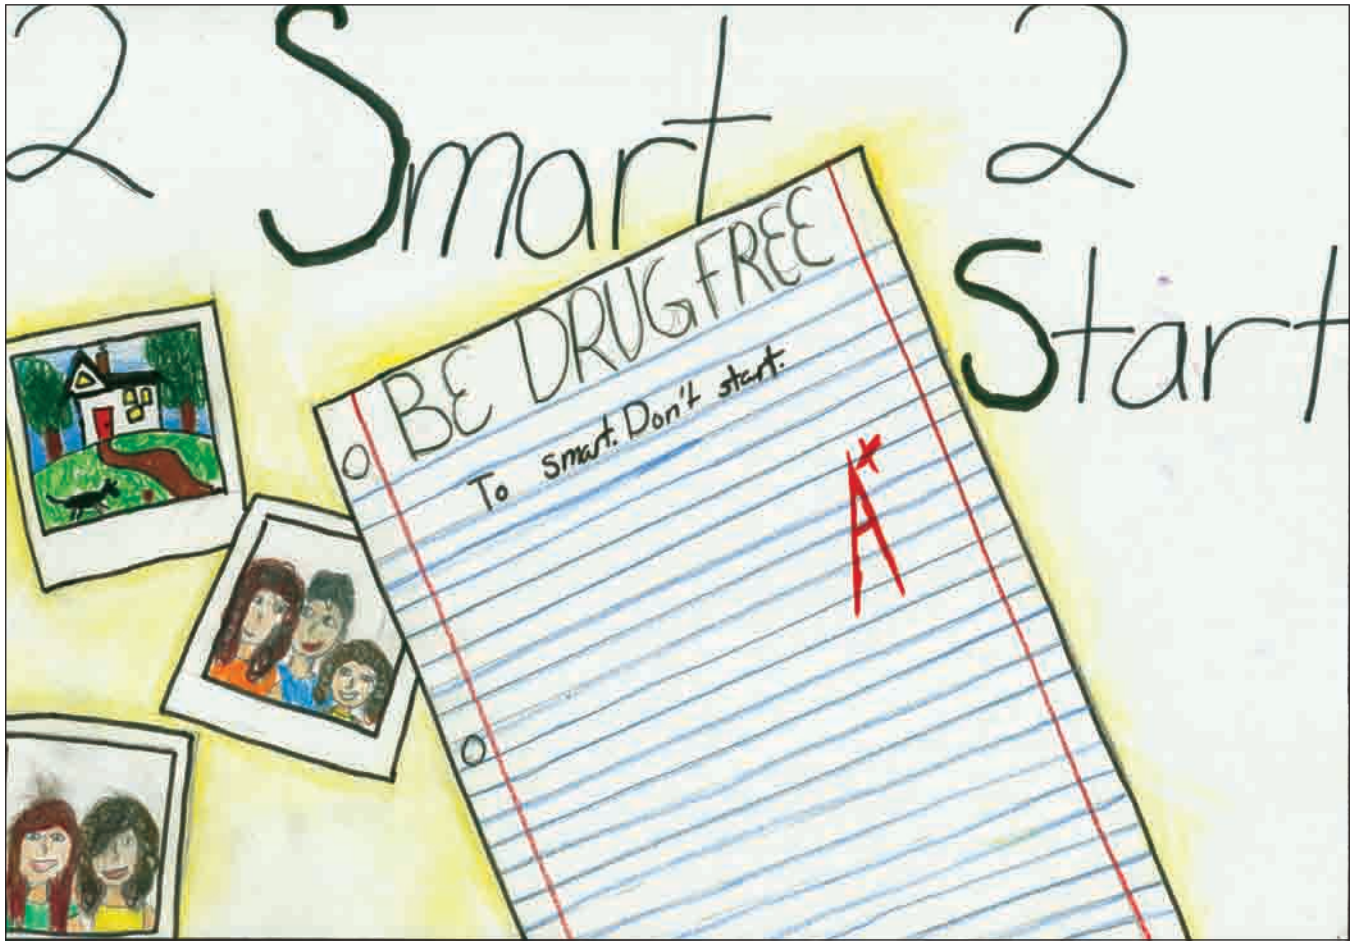

A special thanks must go to Larimer County Sheriff Justin Smith, Loveland Police Chief Luke Hecker, Fort Collins Police Services Captain Jim Szakmeister and Team Fort Collins, as well as our judges - Deputy Nancy Yarberry (LCSO), Officer Bobbie Jo Pastecki (LPD), Officer Mark Larkin (FCPS) and Mike Demma (TFC).

The calendar will respectfully be dedicated to all the young people who contributed their time and talent to the theme, "Too Smart To Start".
