Trails in Larimer County’s Parks and Open Spaces

Carter Lake (southwest of Loveland)
- 3.5 miles of trails - easy to moderate (Sundance Trail, west side of lake, 3.3 miles; Fawn Hollow Trail, from Dam 1, .2 mile)
- Hiking, mountain biking, horseback riding - fishing access from Sundance Trail

Devil’s Backbone Open Space (Devil’s Backbone Trailhead on Hwy. 34 west of Loveland; Blue Sky Trailhead on CR38E west of Ft. Collins)
- 15.2 miles of trails - easy to difficult
- Hiking, mountain biking, horseback riding
- Connects to Blue Sky Trailhead and Coyote Ridge Trailhead (City of Ft. Collins)

Eagle’s Nest Open Space (north of Ft. Collins on Red Feather Lakes Rd. at Livermore)
- 4.8 miles of trails - easy to moderate (3-Bar Trail, 3 miles; OT Trail, 1.8 miles)
- Hiking, horseback riding - no mountain biking

Hermit Park Open Space (2 miles southeast of Estes Park on Highway 36)
- 2.8 miles of trails - easy to moderate to difficult (Homestead Meadows Connector Trail, 1.1 mile connecting to 12 miles of trails in U.S. Forest Service; Kruger Rock Trail, 1.7 miles)
- Hiking, mountain biking, horseback riding - Kruger Rock Trail is hiking only

Horsetooth Mountain Open Space (HTMOS trailhead west of Ft. Collins on C.R. 38E; Soderberg Trailhead ~1.2 miles north of C.R. 38E on Shoreline Drive)
- 29.3 miles of trails - easy to difficult
- Hiking, mountain biking, horseback riding
- Connects to Blue Sky Trailhead and Lory State Park

Horsetooth Reservoir - Inlet Bay Trail (west of Ft. Collins on Shoreline Dr.)
- 2.7 miles of trail - easy (Inlet Bay Trail 1.3 miles, Foothills Trail 1.4 miles)
- Hiking, mountain biking, horseback riding
- Connects Blue Sky Trailhead and Soderberg Trailhead

Pleasant Valley Trail (in Laporte at Lions’ Open Space on Overland Trail south of Hwy. 287)
- 2.2 miles of trail from Lions’ Open Space to Watson Lake - easy
- Hiking, biking, fishing access
- Connects to Poudre River Trail

Pinewood Reservoir & Ramsay-Shockey Open Space (southwest of Loveland)
- 4.1 miles of trails - easy to moderate (Besant Point Trail, 2.6 miles; Shoshone Trail, 1.5 miles)
- Hiking, mountain biking, fishing access
- Besant Point Trail includes two wheelchair-accessible segments at either end (from Blue Mountain Campground .25 mile; from Ramsay-Shockey Trailhead, .19 mile)

Red Mountain Open Space (northern Larimer County between Hwy. 287 & I-25)
- 15.4 miles of trails - easy to moderate
- Hiking, mountain biking, horseback riding - Bent Rock Trail is hiking only
- Big Hole Wash and Cheyenne Rim trails connect to Soapstone Prairie Natural Area (City of Fort Collins)

River Bluffs Open Space (east of I-25, north of Hwy. 392)
- 1 mile of trail - easy
- Hiking, biking, fishing access
- Connects to Poudre River Trail

Regional Trail System from Devil’s Backbone Open Space to Lory State Park:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Approximate Trailhead-to-Trailhead Mileage</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Devil’s Backbone</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Devil’s Backbone</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Coyote Ridge</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Blue Sky</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Soderberg</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Lory State Park Visitor Center</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>